FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JULY 7, 2024

Scripture Reflection...

Today's Gospel tells us that Jesus could work no miracles in Nazareth apart from curing a few who were sick. The Nazarene's lack of faith distressed him. The Greek verbform "being distressed" has the broader meaning of being amazed or taken by surprise. We find it used four other significant times in Mark's Gospel. In the preceding chapter, everyone is amazed as the exorcised Gerasene demoniac proclaims all that Jesus has done for him. Similarly, the Pharisees and Herodians are amazed when Jesus catches them in their hypocrisy by teaching: "Render to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's." Pilate also experiences amazement, first when Jesus makes no reply to the accusations leveled against him and then again when he learns how quickly Jesus had died on the cross.

In other words, "amazement" occurs in the Gospel of Mark when people encounter faith-filled evangelizing, authoritative teaching, or a self-sacrificing witness to the faith. However, what amazes Jesus is just the opposite; the Lord is amazed and distressed at the disbelief he experiences in his hometown. And that irony is meant to make us pause and rethink.

The neighbors of Jesus presumptuously reject what even the enemies of Jesus are willing to concede. What stifles the neighbors' ability to share in real Gospel amazement is their petty, prejudiced preconceptions. The people of Nazareth do an on-the-spot assessment of Jesus' social status, family background, education and profession. And based on that myopic reckoning, they judge Jesus to be a fraud: they found him too much for them.

What causes us to find a Jesus too much for us? Whenever we attempt to evaluate or refashion Christ according to our own image, we diminish and limit Jesus who came to reveal us to ourselves. That kind of bias and dismissiveness restricts our focus and attention to our own limited experiences. If we adhere to such a closed mindedness, we miss out on the splendor and wisdom that Christ reveals to us in his humanity.

When we believe so blindly in ourselves and in our personal world view, the presence of Jesus in our midst becomes obscured. An authentic life of faith, therefore, begins in suspending all preconceived judgments. It is only in God that God's People find their full self-realization which enables us to make sense of life and all its wonders. Faith enables us to see how grace and redemption flow out of what the world would consider impossible. That is why God goes out of his way through Jesus to penetrate right to the place where we live to transform our disbelieving hearts. The Lord wants us to know and share in the Mystery of Emmanuel, "God with us."

Stewardship Thought for the Week

"As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, 'Son of man, I am sending you...'" Ezekiel 2:2-3

God has a plan for each of us. He calls us to do something for Him. But, He doesn't leave us on our own to figure it out. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. Are you listening for God's call? When you hear it, do you get on your feet and do the work He asks of you? Do not be afraid. God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called. Answer His call.

Centering Prayer Silent Meditation

Would you like the gift of prayer?

Centering Prayer presents ancient Christian wisdom teachings in an updated form. It is not meant to replace other kinds of prayer; rather it casts a new light and depth of meaning on them. Centering Prayer is a relationship with God and a discipline to foster that relationship.

This method of prayer is a movement beyond conversation with Christ to communion with him.

Join us Mondays at 8:00am in the Rosemont Chapel.

"Silence is precious; by keeping silence and knowing how to listen to God the soul grows in wisdom and God teaches it what it cannot learn from men." -- Blessed Anne of St. Bartholomew

Our mission is to walk with those impacted by mass incarceration.

Would you consider becoming a pen pal with someone who is incarcerated? It is spiritually rewarding, a great way to perform a corporal work of mercy, and doesn't require much time. You can make a meaningful difference in the life of someone who may otherwise have no one to talk to. Consider sharing the love of God with someone waiting for a pen pal today. No addresses or identifying information will ever be shared.

Provide JOY and HEALTH with new socks!

- Every night in the United States over 560,000 people experience homelessness
- Socks are the #1 item requested at shelters
- The Joy of Sox collects NEW socks for men, women and children
- Over the last 13 years we have distributed over 1,020,063 pairs of socks in 273 shelters in 34 states and 15 countries

Let's help The Joy of Sox (founded by STV parishioner Tom Costello). Bring in pairs of NEW socks and we will take them to The Joy of Sox for distribution. Drop off your donations at the Parish Center during office hours, Monday-Thursday, 9:00am-4:30pm, and Friday 9:00am-1:00pm.

Thank you for your generosity.

Archdiocese of Philadelphia Metropolitan Tribunal

DO YOU KNOW YOUR TRIBUNAL?

The Tribunal is a group of specially qualified Catholics whose responsibility is to come to the help of people who have experienced divorce and who may wish to remarry in the Catholic Church.

When a divorce occurs, the Catholic Church always seeks to balance two realities. One is the unbreakableness of the bond of marriage. This is God's law. It cannot be broken by human intervention. On the other hand, the Church is concerned about the spiritual welfare of the people involved. Was this a true marriage? Even though a Catholic marriage was celebrated, was there perhaps some deficiency in the consent of the parties involved? The annulment procedure addresses this problem.

If you are divorced and want to marry in the Church or remarried outside the Catholic Church, please telephone the Tribunal Office.
